TOPEX Swarovski[®] "All That Glitters" Collection; Clockwise: Diamond Bar, Cuff Link, Crystal Ball, High Gear, Lights On

(Elmwood Park, NJ, September 15, 2009) Topex, the international company offering high-quality decorative hardware, introduces a cabinet's best friend—the Swarovski Crystal "All That Glitters" Collection. The collection is a unique facet of decorative hardware that adds shimmering dimension to the space. The only thing more fun than trying it on, is picking out the cut and shape.

It is the unique cut and shape of the Topex Swarovski Crystal knobs and pull that define their optical characteristics. Each piece, radiant in its own right, captures and releases colors differently. The "All That Glitters" Collection includes four distinctive knobs and a pull handle.

The Swarovski Crystal knobs come in shapes that resemble large diamonds. Knob crystal shapes include the round-cut "Crystal Ball," the four princess-cut crystals of "Cuff Link," the emerald-cut "Lights On," and the old-European-cut "High Gear." "Diamond Bar," the pull handle reminiscent of a piece of fine jewelry, is set with nine princess-cut crystals. All knobs and the pull come in the elegant Bright Chrome finish.

Knobs range in overall size and projection from $\frac{3}{4}$ inches to $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches, with widths of $\frac{1}{2}$ to $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches. The overall size of the pull handle is $4\frac{1}{4}$ inches, with a 1-inch projection and 1-inch width. List prices range from approximately \$39 to \$212.
